

HOLDING PAGE PROJECT

DESIGN FOR THE WEB

Create your own holding page with additional information about yourself for your page on our course website - opened via your portrait link.

PROJECT DETAILS

The link currently displaying your portrait image is intended to link to your work - either via a holding page or eventually even directly to your final portfolio site. This is your own area where you can choose to show what you like.

Create a 2 page holding area using your own imagery and content text. You are free to show anything you like - only images or combining text with images, the topic and look of the pages is entirely up to you ;)

TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS

- images minimum of 2 different images to be displayed on 1 page each
- content text write your own or quote relevant text from an external source
- pages minimum of 2 pages

SCHEDULE

- start date 18/10/06
- deadline 1/11/06
